CYNTHIA SLEE

Inspirational Speaker-Singer-Songwriter

Diagnosed with multiple sclerosis at age 36, Cynthia Slee is a living testament to the unexpected power of adversity. Her journey through heartbreak, loss, and life-altering challenges has become a story of resilience, transformation, and joy. Today, Cynthia inspires audiences to move beyond fear, discover their inner strength, and embrace new possibilities when life takes an unexpected turn.

Having reached more than 20,000 people across 100 stages, she delivers an engaging, heartfelt keynote concert experiences that moves audiences beyond inspiration to meaningful action.

As seen on

CBS SECOND Wind abc WARNER CHAPPELL Production Music

The Unexpected Power Of Adversity

Adversity. We all face it. But how do we survive it? Through heartfelt storytelling, humor, and uplifting original music, Cynthia shares her journey of facing a life-changing diagnosis and discovering a new path forward. Using her three-part framework—Crisis, Clarity, and Calling—she shows audiences how to turn setbacks into opportunities for growth.

Outcomes:	Build Resilience
	Create Meaningful Change
	Move Beyond Fear

More Information

https://www.clskeynoteconcerts.com

(419)356-7864

clskeynoteconcerts@gmail.com

Testimonials

"She shared with us her story of struggle, her darkest moments and her incredible climb back to the light...it was emotional and powerful. The songs she incorporated into moments of her speech were so well placed they felt almost symbiotic"

— Jake Pilewski

"Cindy brings humor and heart to a serious topic and leaves participants with HOPE!"

— Theresa Konwinski

"Honest, funny, talented, a heart warmer"

— Ruth Hasselman

"You said 'I didn't want my friends and family to feel the fear I was feeling...This is why I always say I'm fine' This is so true."

— Carol Roach

CLS KEYNOTE CONCERTS